Jacksonville is only a short 5 hour drive from Aiken...join us as we travel south to Florida's Gateway City! Explore...experience...and enjoy all this lovely city has to offer. Jacksonville is located on the beautiful St. John's River and this is where the Old South meets the urban chic. We'll be staying in Jacksonville at the Hyatt Place, St. John's Town Center, where upscale shopping and dining are footsteps away with gorgeous views overlooking a man-made lake. We will also have time to enjoy the Broadway production, "A Wonderful Life," at the Alhambra Dinner Theatre complete with buffet dinner prior to the show on the evening of December 9, 2020. Hopefully, there will be time to relax and maybe even take a short walk on the lake or take in a little shopping before we leave for the theatre.

Alhambra
theatre & dining

The next day we will travel to St. Augustine, a city known for its lavish Christmas displays, where we will board a local trolley for a riding tour of the historical area, enjoy lunch at the famous Columbia Restaurant and then visit the Lightner Museum before retiring back to our hotel. All too soon we will be leaving this beautiful city to make our way back to South Carolina. On the way home, we will enjoy a wonderful lunch at the Barony House in Moncks Corner and a tour of Mepkin Abbey before returning to Aiken.

The nation's oldest city, St. Augustine, beckons visitors to discover its charming cobblestone streets, historical landmarks and pristine beaches. Friendly locals, sunny days and lovely places welcome guests year-round. You will especially enjoy your Old Town Trolley Tour, bringing the best of the city to life through Transportation, their unique blend of transportation and entertainment. Climb aboard to experience the humorous tales and interesting trivia of the friendly conductors, as they bring 500 years of American history to life.

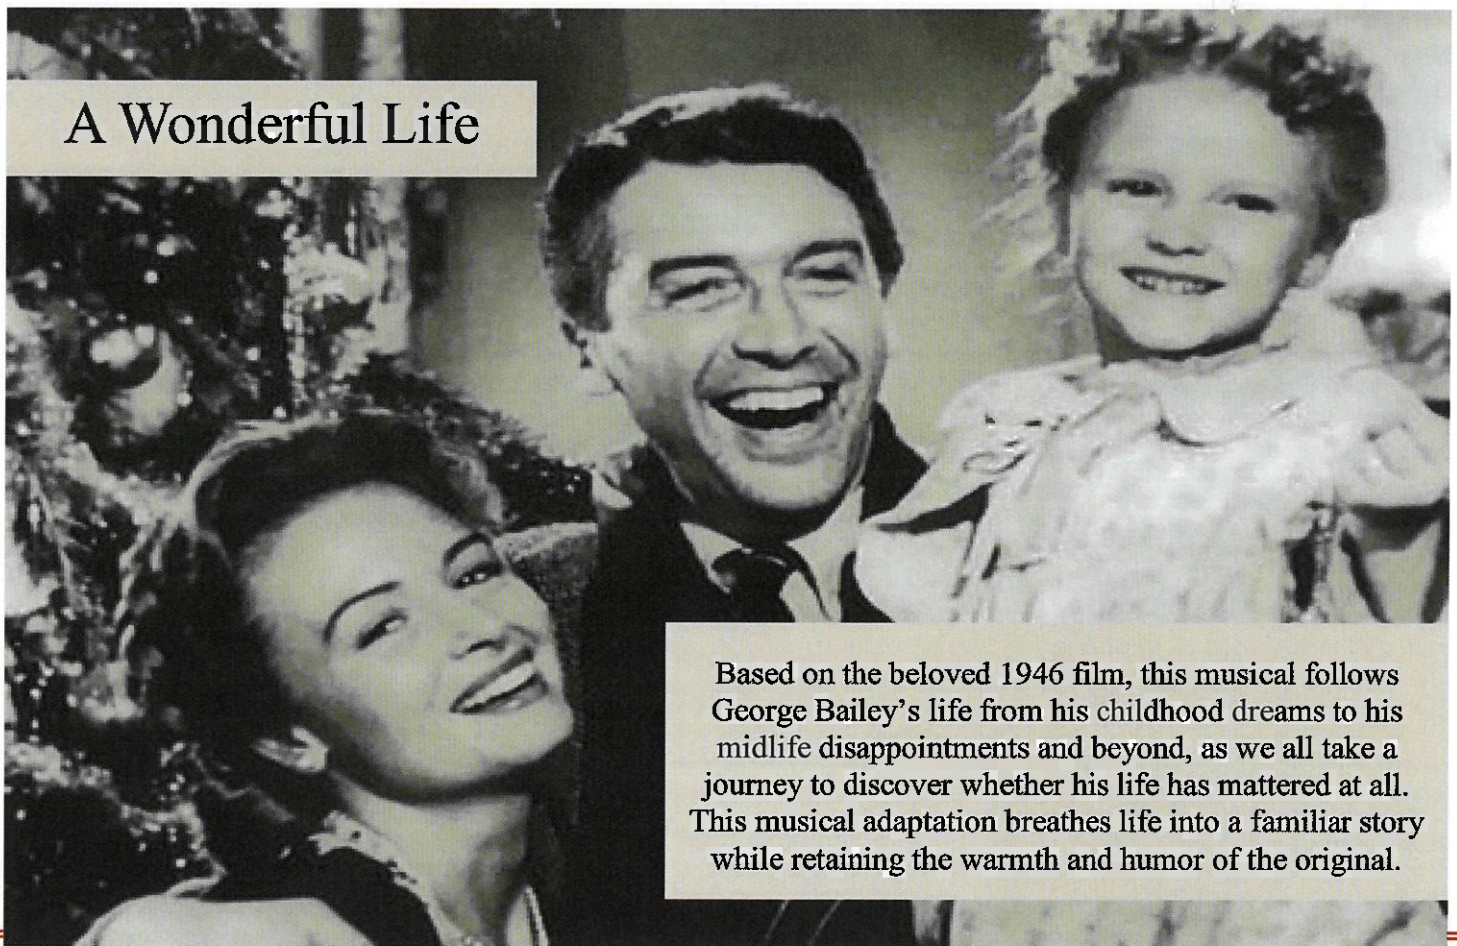

We will enjoy a guided tour of Mepkin Abbey, a Trappist monastery in Berkeley County, South Carolina. Established in 1949 on the grounds of historic Mepkin Plantation and located on the Cooper River. Following The Rule of St. Benedict, the monks at Mepkin Abbey devote their lives to prayer, spiritual study, work and hospitality. Living by the work of their hands, the monks provide a livelihood for themselves and the poor.

Remember: "Expect something special when you travel with Carolina Tours.!"

A Wonderful Life

Based on the beloved 1946 film, this musical follows George Bailey's life from his childhood dreams to his midlife disappointments and beyond, as we all take a journey to discover whether his life has mattered at all. This musical adaptation breathes life into a familiar story while retaining the warmth and humor of the original.
